

Building MultiStories

Dr. Fionnuala Darby
Ms. Lindsay Dowling

THE NUMBERS...AT A GLANCE

- 46 students involved
- 2 staff members driving the initiative
- 10 diverse student team assignments completed
- 33 new library acquisitions - Development of the 'Discover Diversity' collection
- 3 TU Dublin-wide Seminars + Workshops: 177 participants across all events
- 1 Framework to Diversify the Curriculum in Higher Education

I developed my diversity competence through the discovery and research of different types of sources.

Impact

Quality Education (SDG 4)

Addressing racial inequalities in university education

Inclusive Curriculum Content

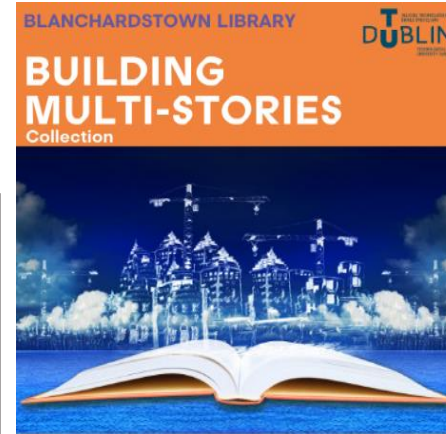

Reflects a diverse and multi-cultural campus and society

Developing Diversity Competence

Ethnically diverse teams + critical thinking skills

Discover Diversity Collection

Library Training - information literacy skills

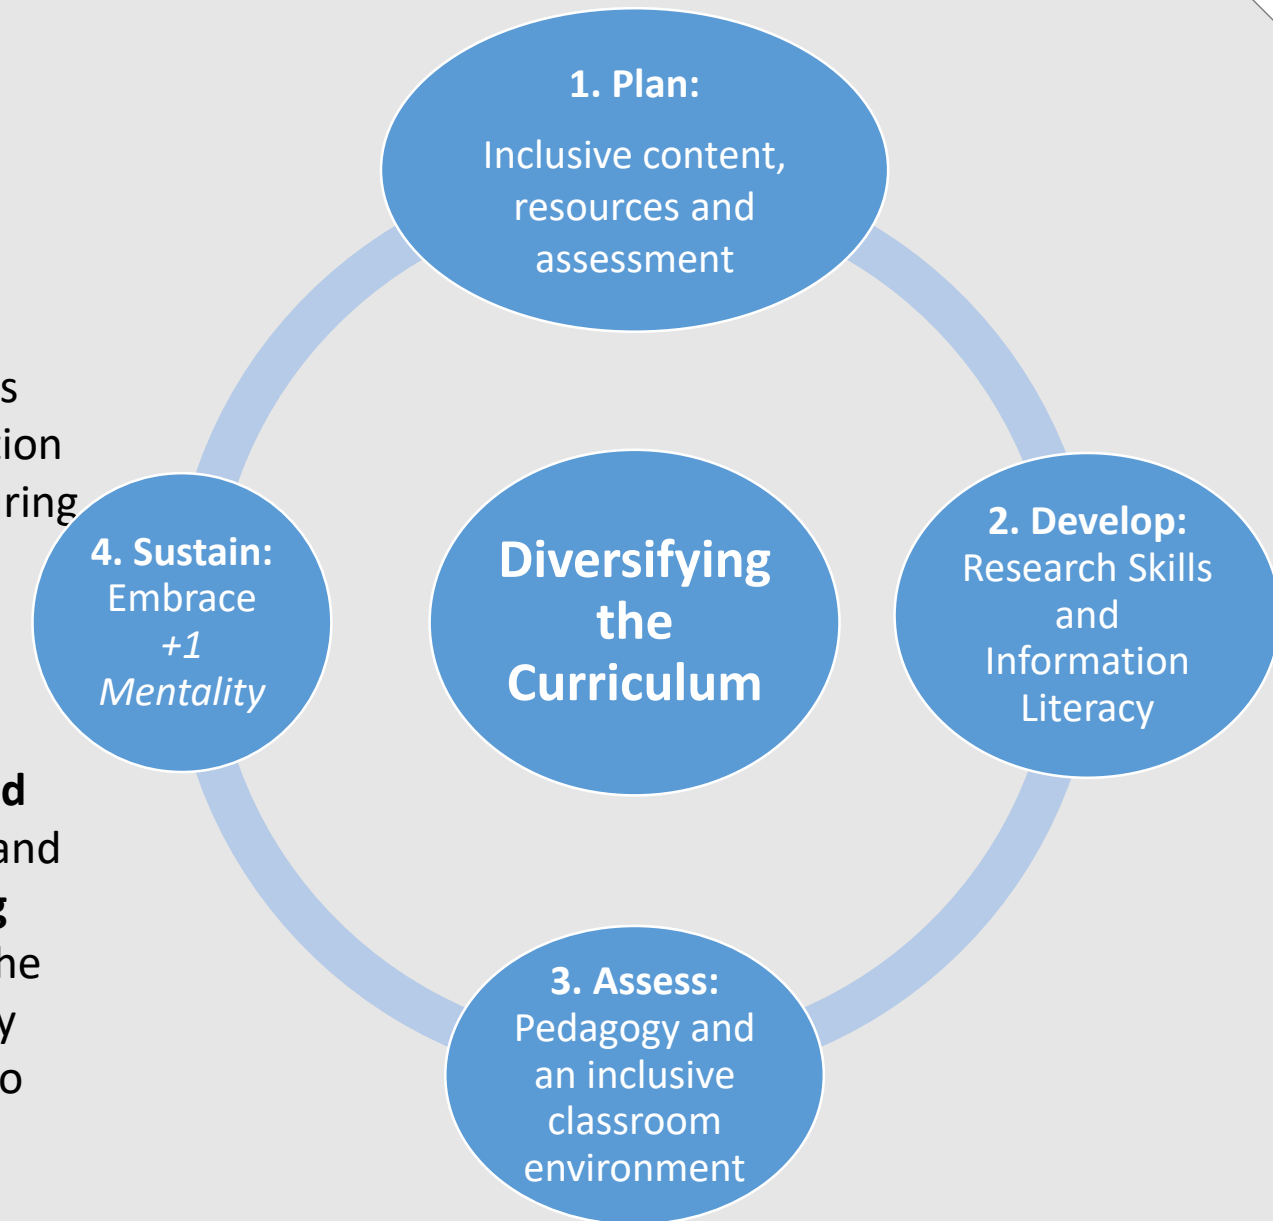

"I am proud of being part of diverse projects like this one, and I will present my learnings to an employer as being open-minded and belonging to a generation that accepts everyone, from everywhere."
{Student Quote}

Aim: Diversifying The Curriculum

A joint collaboration with staff and students to centralise the importance of diverse curriculum content by embedding a teaching and learning innovation within a module.

4 - STEP Framework of planning ahead for inclusive content, developing research skills and information literacy, ensuring an inclusive classroom environment enabled by pedagogy and assessment and by sustaining diversity in the curriculum by committing to changes and sharing learnings.

Getting Started - Resources

Read: Darby, F. & Dowling, L., [in review] Irish Journal of Academic Practice 2021, Building MultiStories: Embedding the library services for inclusive teaching and learning in a diverse curriculum.

Listen: The Black and Irish Podcast

Watch: Dr. Katherine Haxton, VICEPHEC21, Chemistry For All: Global, Diverse, and Fit for Purpose.

VIT&L Teaching & Learning Showcase 2021

